MC KINNEY PRIZE DEBATE HELD

Franklin Clark Fry Wins First Prize, Joseph Brown Rodgers Carries Off Second Honors

DEBATE SPIRITED

The Fifty-third McKinney Prize Debate, which was held in the College Chapel on Thursday evening, was won by Franklin Clark Fry, of Rochester. Joseph Brown Rodgers of Rutherford, N. J. won second place. The debate, for which the proposition was "Resolved, that the Federal Government should purchase the anthracite coal deposits of the United States of America and lease them to private operators," was spirited and keenly contested throughout.

For the affirmative Edmund Randolph Finegan opened with a detailed arraignment of the anthracite combination, which is alleged to control the output of the coal and to be in a large measure responsible for the present high prices and scarcity. He was followed on the affirmative by Grant Keehn, who set forth the existing wasteful methods of operating the mines, due chiefly to the large profits to be derived. The affirmative was concluded by Joseph Brown Rodgers, who showed how past attempts under private ownership to break up the monoply by prosecution, legislation, and awards by commissions had failed, and that the plan of the affirmative for leasing the mines under government ownership would, in large measure, tend to correct the evils of the monopoly.

The negative was opened by John Dehn VanKennen, who pointed out the factors that analyzed the present high prices and showed how they were due to the rise in the cost of mining and transportation. The second speaker for the negative was Allen Eaton Throop, who showed that government ownership would result in inefficiency, confusion, and corruption. In concluding for the negative Franklin Clark Fry, in the most outstanding speech of the evening, showed how the problems of the anthracite industry were inseparably bound up with those of the bituminous trade and of the railroads, and how government ownership of the mines would eventually lead to socialistic ownership of all public utilities; and, finally, how, under present economic conditions, such a change would wreck the industry of the country.

The rebuttal, which was spirited and pointed, kept the audience constantly on the alert. The refutations made by Finegan, Fry and Rodgers were especially strong and noteworthy.

The personnel of the two sides was as follows: Affirmative—Edmund Randolph Finegan, Harrisburg, Pa.;

SENIOR BALL HELD IN GYMNASIUM

Hundred Couples Take Part in Last Dance of Year—Music Furnished by Foster's Orchestra

The Senior Ball of 1921 was held in the Gymnasium on the evening of June 17. Over a hundred couples were present. Dancing began at eleven, at the conclusion of the Charlatan plays, and lasted until after six in the morning. The occasion was made more enjoyable by the attendance of many of the alumni with their wives and sweethearts. One of the best parts of the program was the attractive favors. Music was rendered by the popular Judson Foster Novelty Seven of Utica. The faculty and neighboring trustees acted as patrons. The intermission, which came at two o'clock, gave everyone an opportunity to enjoy the refreshments served by Mrs. King at Commons. Much credit is due Mrs. King for the manner in which she carried out her end of the program.

The committee which made the Senior Ball the success it was included A. Bailey Clark, Chairman, New Haven, William Morrison Griffith, Utica, and Norman Barron, New York Mills.

ANNIVERSARY CLASSES TO HOLD REUNIONS

Class of 1871 Will Be Represented By Large Number—Many 1920 Men To Return—Two Histories To Be Published

The reunions of anniversary classes will be held in Commons Hall this noon at 12:30. All the classes whose anniversaries are multiples of five, and the class which has been graduated for three years will meet at this time. No communications have yet been received from the four living members of the class of 1861. The class of '71, which celebrates its fiftieth anniversary, expects to be represented by a large number. Mr. Charles L. Stone, '71, of Syracuse, is the secreary, and Mr. John E. Frost, '71, will act as President of the Day in the meeting of the Society of Alumni. Rev. Robert L. Bachman, '71, the Half-Century Annalist, has prepared the class history, which will be read by Rev. Daniel A. Ferguson, '71.

The other classes which will hold reunions are: '76, '81, '86, '91, '96, '01, '06, '11, '16, and '20. The Class of 1920 expects to have a large number on the Hill during Commencement Week.

The gathering will probably be one of the largest ever held on the Hill at Commencement. No definite figures have yet been obtained but everything points to a large meeting of The General Society of Alumni.

The histories of the classes of 1881 and 1916 will be published shortly after Commencement.

TRUSTEES HOLD SPRING MEETING

Munson Professor of German Appointed—Resolutions in Honor of Dr. Brandt and Judge Hawley—Associate Physical Director Secured.

COLLEGE STORE TO MOVE

The June meeting of the Trustees of Hamilton College was held Thursday afternoon in the Hall of Philosophy. During the course of the meeting resolutions were adopted in honor of Doctor Herman Carl George Brandt and Hon. Charles A. Hawley.

Senator Frederick W. Griffith of Palmyra was re-elected to the Board of Trustees, and Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Hoyt, President of the Auburn Theological Seminary, was selected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Louis G. Colson.

Doctor Edward F. Hauch of Rutgers College was chosen to be the Munson Professor of German Language and Literature. Dr. Hauch was born in the United States and is of German parentage. He graduated from the University of Toronto with honors in the modern languages. He later received his degree of Ph.D. for work in German under Professor Calvin Thomas at Columbia University. He taught for a brief period in the Horace Mann High School in New York City and for the last ten years has occupied the position of Associate Professor at Rutgers College.

Dr. Hauch is very active in both the State and Federal Associations of Teachers of the Modern Languages. His works have been published very often in connection with not only German studies but also with the teaching of all modern languages. His appointment will make him a full professor in the German Department.

Mr. J. M. Gelas was appointed as Associate Physical Director. Mr. Gelas was born in France, and, after coming to this country, he became a member of the Department of Physical Training at Cornell University from 1905 to 1916. Since that time he has been an instructor in gymnasium work at West Point, and has acted as coach of soccer, swimming, and fencing. Mr. Gelas has been connected with several other institutions and is considered an expert in fencing. He graduated from the International Y. M. C. A. College at Springfield.

The Trustees further approved the plan of allowing the College Store to have rooms in the bowling alleys under the dining room in Commons Hall.

The date of the McKinney Prize Speaking was changed and will be held at four o'clock on the Friday of Commencement Week hereafter. The McKinney Prize Debate will be held at an earlier date but the attendance will not be compulsory.

HAMILTON ALUMNUS AND NOTED EDUCATOR DIES

Dr. Adam Martin, '58, Former President of Northwestern College, Dies in New Haven.

Adam Martin, D.D., '58, died recentcently at his home in New Haven, Conn., at the age of 86. He was a brother of the late Hon. Henry Martin, formerly mayor of the city of Utica, and of the late Frederick Martin, also of that city.

Adam Martin was born in Zweibruecken, Germany, August 9, 1835. He received his early education in that country, and came to America with his brother in 1852, and located in Utica. He attended the First Presbyterian Church Sunday School, and readily mastered the English language. He entered Hamilton and was graduated in the class of 1858, receiving a Phi Beta Kappa key for excellence in scholarship.

Dr. Martin then studied in Hartwick Theological Seminary, and was ordained to the ministry of the Lutheran Church. He was pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church at Middleburgh, Schoharie County, N. Y., from November 1, 1860, to May 1, 1865. He was then chosen president of Northwestern College at Watertown, Wis., and served in that capacity most acceptably from September 1, 1865, to July 1, 1869.

Dr. Martin took a position as professor of German language and literature and instructor in French and History in Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., and served in this capacity for nearly thirty years, until his retirement in 1898. Since then he had been living at New Haven, Conn.

Early in his career as a clergyman, the degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon Dr. Martin. He was a man of great learning and kindly disposition. In politics he was a Republican, but was independent as a voter. July 23, 1868, he married Annie E. Sanford, who is still living. He leaves one son, Sanford B. Martin of New Haven, Conn.

Adieu to '21

With this issue of Life Volume Twenty-three comes to its conclusion. During the past year there has appeared on these pages a record of the events of that period. Notable among these latter was the recent endowment drive with its success both on the campus and in the various cities where groups of Hamilton alumni are found. Today we read that the registration for the Class of 1925 exceeds that of any other class in the history of the College upon a corresponding date. There have appeared pictures of the new athletic building and gymnasium with descriptions of the plans for a "Greater Hamilton." We have only to look around us to see physical exhibitions of this era which is to come. It is no longer purely mythical, a thing on paper only. Significant, in view of the large entering class next fall, was the recent vote of the undergraduates in favor of a larger, as well as a greater Hamilton.

In the realm of athletics we have chronicled an undefeated hockey season, successful seasons in football, basketball, track and other sports. The Charlatans and musical clubs have been received with applause and enthusiasm throughout the year. A new publication has appeared on the Hill; and preceding it there came an honorary journalistic fraternity, an invaluable asset to Hamilton College publications.

At this Commencement time with its ceremonies marking the departure of the Class of 1921, it is only natural that we should look ahead to next year. We look ahead with optimism, despite the fact that with the Class of 1921 there goes from Hamilton an invaluable collection of athletes, scholars, musicians, writers, actors, and gentlemen. It would be trite to say that their places will be filled with difficulty. Nevertheless, as we have mentioned above, we look forward to next year with optimism and anticipation. We are embarking upon a new era; we are upon the threshold of a Greater Hamilton. The Class of 1921 leaves behind it a record of which Hamilton may be proud. It only remains for the succeeding classes to continue this work and even to perform greater work in keeping with a greater college.

CHARLATAN PERFORMANCE GIVEN IN GYMNASIUM

Three One-Act Plays Received With Great Favor—Program Included Play by Griffith, '21

The fifth annual Commencement performance of the Charlatans was given in the Gymnasium last night before an audience that crowded the hall to its capacity. A program of three one-act plays was given.

"The Face in the Stone" by Griffith, '21, which is the first play pritten by an undergraduate ever produced by the Charlatans, met with an enthusiastic reception.

Upon invitation of the Charlatans the class in Dramatic Interpretation presented "The Glittering Gate," which formed part of the program recently at the opening of the Little Theater.

The casts of the plays follow: The Glittering Gate, by Lord Dunsany—Bill, Henry Cornelius Smith; Jim, Clement Graham Martin, Jr. The Face in the Stone, by Griffith, '21—Gabriello, William Morrison Griffith, Jr.; Lucia, William Bush Baer. Suppressed Desires—Stephen Brewster, Arthur Joseph Doyle; Henrietta, William Morrison Griffith, Jr.; Mabel, William Bush Baer.

NOTICE

After the exercises in the Chapel on Monday morning, when the class reunions are being held in Commons Hall, the Smith College Alumnae will serve luncheon to the friends and relatives of the visiting alumni in the Truax Hall of Philosophy. There will be a charge of $1.30 per plate. The proceeds will go to the Smith College Endowment Fund.

ATHLETES EXCEL AS SCHOLARS

Athletic officials of the University of Pittsburgh announce that schedules show that those students interested in athletics did better work than those who were not interested in athletics. A detailed statement showing the standing of athletes compared with non-athletes will be issued for the public later.

—Getman, '22, has been elected captain of next year's tennis team.

FIRST ISSUE OF ROYAL GABOON IS SUCCESS

Initial Number Greeted With Enthusiasm—Sales Reach High Mark—Many Cartoons

The Royal Gaboon crashed through. The Commencement issue came out with a bang, through the enthusiastic support of the undergraduate body, the hearty cooperation of the advertisers, and the almost superhuman efforts of the editorial board. The colored cover, a genuine work of art done by Palmer,, '23, has been a large factor in the success of this issue. The double page in the middle of the magazine is taken up with an appealing sketch of the effect of the Eighteenth Amendment on college life, drawn by Teddy Paton. Numerous other illustrations, among them "Dormitory Life at Ham Coll" by Seaver, '23, add much to the magazine's selling power.

The jokes and poems, most of which are original, speak for themselves. An opportunity for the wit of the Hill to assert itself was afforded, and it cannot be denied that it did so, making a magazine that sells itself.

The next issue, appearing about October 25 at Fall House Party, will be improved and enlarged, containing 36 pages, four more than this number, with a larger number of advertisements. Much of the material for next fall is already on hand. The Fall House Party number will be illustrated considerably more than this one and will be capped with an appropriate cover in colors. The back page will also be colored. Editor Mulford urges that more men come out for the competition for editorial and managerial boards.

PRESIDENT FERRY SPEAKS ON "THE CHOICE OF A COLLEGE"

Dr. Frederick C. Ferry spoke at a regular meeting of the Mohawk Valley Branch of the American Association of University Women on "The Choice of a College," at the Yahnundasis Golf Club last Saturday. After the business session, Dr. Ferry made his address, and said in part: "Proximity and influence of friends and relatives play an important part in the choice of a college. While some students leave college with the words 'magna cum laude' upon their diplomas, many seem to have the words 'mirabile dictu' engraved upon them. To those considering the choice of a college I should suggest the following: Choose a small college, one that is old, and that is in the country or a village. Choose a homogeneous college, whose admission requirements are of a high standard, one which has a wide geographic representation among its undergraduates. Do not choose a college because of its athletic superiority, or one that calls for an unnecessary degree of extravagance. If possible, find a college where Latin and Greek are taught as faithfully as they were thirty years ago. These studies insure scholarship and educational discipline. The chief reason for selecting a college should be the character of its faculty. This is the crucial test."

Dr. Ferry enlarged upon this last point as being of the very greatest importance, and said: "The youth is influenced unconsciously by the personality of the professors, and the best college is the one that has among its faculty the largest proportion of those whose influence is a pointer for good."

CLASS DAY EXERCISES HELD IN CHAPEL

Faculty Placed on Trial—Albedt Kaiser Elected Squarest Man in Class

The Class Day exercises of the Class of 1921 were held in the Chapel yesterday morning. At ten-thirty sharp the seniors marched into the Chapel singing the faculty scurf song. They took their accustomed places and then the ceremonies began.

The first thing on the program was a trial of the faculty. It was called the Trial of Intelligence. John D. VanKennen acted as judge, and about one half of the rest of the class acted as jury. Franklin Fry represented Edison and acted as the prosecuting attorney by applying an intelligence test to the members of the faculty under trial.

The first one summoned was President Ferry (Walter Barry) and then in order the following: Prof. Squires (Elliot May); Little Greek (Ham Peck); "Chubby" Ristine (Monty Harper); "Chisel Chin Charlie" Bonham (Harry Coupe); "Cal" Lewis, (Abe Ballot); and, lastly, Coach Prettyman (Pirnie Pritchard).

Monteith Harper read the Class Poem. It was a very clever piece of work, and it was very much appreciated by the audience. In it there was woven all of the salient features of the history of the Class of 1921. Walter Barry gave some cleverly worked out individual prophecies of the members of the class.

The class gifts were presented by Paul Ballot, after which the indoor exercises were completed. Grant Keehn, after the presentation of the gifts, announced that "Al" Kaiser had been chosen as the squarest man in the class.

The exercises were closed in front of the new library, where the planting of the ivy was performed. At this ceremony, Grant Keehn, the president of the class, made the farewell address to the college. Speeches of farewell to the outgoing class were spoken by Charles Keane for the Junior Class, by Watson Thompson for the Sophomore Class, and by Gregory Tryon for the Freshman Class. Then followed the singing of Carissima, which ended the program.

The committee in charge of the Class Day Exercises consisted of Paul Ballot, Chairman, Walter Barry and Monteith Harper.

Spice o' Life

Zip (discussing the Trenton Falls trip): "Are there any geological stations after we leave Prospect?"

Rocks: "Yes, Griffith, the Union Station."

He: "Why do you say that her teeth are like the stars?"

Ditto: "Out every night.

Rocks: "Are there any representatives of the bovine type left, Stern?"

Dutch: "Why—ah—there's more bull now."

This is supposed to be funny, so laugh: "The wages of gin is breath."

As Carissima might be sung:
Dear are thy rooms, thy eats, thy fees,
Dearer the cabs that climb thy brow.

From the Quakerstown (Pa.) Press: "George Trump was the first farmer to have young chickens."

On the window of a Syracuse shop:
I. Yusem,
Pants.

We are yet, but we are thinking of selling them this week to pay our Commons bill.

"Stockings?" said the salesman. "Yes, madam. What number do you wear?"

"Why, two, of course," said the sweet young thing.

—Lehigh Burr.

Heloise: "Was he on his knees when he proposed to you?"

Helene: "No, I was."

Stude: "See this chalk on my shoulder?"

Roommate: "Yeh."

Stude: "Well, that ain't chalk."

WARREN HOLDS UNION HITLESS

Hamilton Victorious Over Old Rivals for Second Time This Season.

SCORE 5–0

Hamilton defeated Union by a 5–0 score at Clinton on Decoration Day. Captain Pritchard led his men to a decisive triumph over the Garnet team. There were several important features connected with the game. Warren pitched a no hit, no run game, a thing that has not been accomplished by a Buff and Blue twirler since the days of Steve Royce. Moreover, this was the second time this season that the Garnet has fallen before Captain Pritchard's men. This was also the first time that Hamilton has succeeded in taking two games from Union since 1914.

Warren's work on the mound was especially noteworthy, as this is his first season in intercollegiate ball. Captain Pritchard, in addition to making a home run, drove in three other runs with his timely hitting.

Up to the sixth inning the game was a pitchers' battle but in her half of this frame the Buff and Blue made three runs. Hunter drew a pass. Campbell was safe on an error, Hunter overran third base, and it looked as if he was a sure out for the entire Union team had him in a hot-box. Finally one of the Garnet players threw wild, and Hunter scored. Campbell took third on the wild throw. Moffat was hit by a pitched ball. Pritchard singled scoring Campbell and Moffat. In the eighth with two out Moffat doubled, and Pritchard, after taking two strikes, hit a homer into left field.

May and Hunter featured in the field for Hamilton. May made a one-hand stop of a ball which seemed good for a triple, while Hunter made four pretty assists.

Goff pitched good ball for Union, but had two bad innings which proved his downfall. He struck out six men, while Warren fanned eight of the Schenectady men.

What Is Research?

SUPPOSE that a stove burns too much coal for the amount of heat that it radiates. The manufacturer hires a man familiar with the principles of combustion and heat radiation to make experiments which will indicate desirable changes in design. The stove selected as the most efficient is the result of research.

Suppose that you want to make a ruby in a factory—not a mere imitation, but a real ruby, indistinguishable by any chemical or physical test from the natural stone. You begin by analyzing rubies chemically and physically. Then you try to make rubies just as nature did, with the same chemicals and under similar conditions. Your rubies are the result of research—research of a different type from that required to improve the stove.

Suppose, as you melted up your chemicals to produce rubies and experimented with high temperatures, you began to wonder how hot the earth must have been millions of years ago when rubies were first crystallized, and what were the forces at play that made this planet what it is. You begin an investigation that leads you far from rubies and causes you to formulate theories to explain how the earth, and, for that matter, how the whole solar system was created. That would be research of a still different type—pioneering into the unknown to satisfy an insatiable curiosity.

Research of all three types is conducted in the Laboratories of the General Electric Company. But it is the third type of research—pioneering into the unknown—that means most, in the long run, even though it is undertaken with no practical benefit in view.

At the present time, for example, the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company are exploring matter with X-rays in order to discover not only how the atoms in different substances are arranged but how the atoms themselves are built up. The more you know about a substance, the more you can do with it. Some day this X-ray work will enable scientists to answer more definitely than they can now the question: Why is iron magnetic? And then the electrical industry will take a great step forward, and more real progress will be made in five years than can be made in a century of experimenting with existing electrical apparatus.

You can add wings and stories to an old house. But to build a new house. you must begin with the foundation.

KING OF SIAM HONORS WILLIAM M. COLLIER, '89

President of George Washington University Receives Rank of Grand Officer of Order of Crown of Siam

The King of Siam has just given to William Miller Collier of Auburn, President of George Washington University at Washington, the Order of the Crown of Siam, with the rank of Grand Officer, "in recognition of his interest in Siam and his efforts in behalf of the welfare of that country."

President Collier, who has long been interested in the political and social conditions of the countries of the Far East, has been active among those who have championed a fuller recognition by the European and American nations, of the progress which has been made in recent years by Siam. He has been a strong advocate of the early modification of the treaties which have limited the jurisdiction of the Siamese Courts over alien residents in Siam. A treaty which will very largely secure to Siam its unimpaired sovereignty was approved by the United States Senate about two weeks ago.

This is the second time that foreign nations have recognized in this way the services of President Collier. Five years ago, the King of Spain conferred upon him the Grand Cross of Isabella on account of his numerous books and addresses on that country.

The Order of the Crown of Siam which has just been conferred upon him is the oldest of the orders of that country and the rank of Grand Officer is next to the highest of the five ranks in it.

President Collier is a graduate of Hamilton College, Class of '89, and was formerly American Minister to Spain.

HAMILTON DROPS SEASON'S LAST GAME TO R. P. I.

Pitching Duel Ends in 5–1 Defeat—Buff and Blue Outhits Engineers.

Hamilton lost the final game of the season to R. P. I. on Saturday, June 4. It was a pitchers' battle throughout, but Kuhnert received better support than Warren. The Engineers played errorless ball, while the Buff and Blue made four errors.

It was the last game for six of the Hamilton men who graduate this June. Although Hamilton outhit the Troy men, they were unable to bunch the hits, while the hits of the Red team were coupled with errors to count for runs.

Hamilton's lone run came in the ninth, when Moffat tripled to left, and Pritchard singled to center to score Moffat.

William H. Spice, Jr., '22, was elected president of The Charlatans for the season 1921-22 at the annual election of the organization. George C. Morehouse, '23, was elected vice-president. Spice's work in "The Last Man In" this season has been particularly outstanding and has caused much favorable comment at every presentation.

Thomas B. Pope, '22, was elected captain of the track team for next year at a meeting of the team immediately following the Union meet. Pope runs the 220 low hurdles and the 100 yard dash. In his Sophomore year he made the college record for the low hurdles, running them in 26 2–5 seconds.

James B. Davis, '22, was elected captain of the baseball team for next season. Davis has played on the team for two years, first in right field, and then behind the bat last year. He caught regularly all this season and was one of the heaviest hitters on the team.

PUBLICATIONS SECURE OFFICE IN Y. M. C. A.

Manager Farrand of the Press Board announces that he has definitely secured the front room in Silliman Hall for use as an office for Hamilton publications. The room will contain seven or eight desks, which will be solely for the use of editors and business managers of the four publications. It is intended to have the office rewired. A telephone has already been ordered installed. Typewriters will be part of the new equipment. Manager Farrand says that this office will be private, and only editors and business managers will be offered its privileges. The rooms will be used next fall.
